North Hollywood Man Gets 42 Years to Life for Killing Parents

A 30-year-old North Hollywood man was sentenced today to 42 years to life in prison for fatally bludgeoning his parents, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Jonathan Mercado (dob 3/25/87) pleaded no contest in September to two counts of murder and admitted the special allegations of using a deadly and dangerous weapon.

On Sept. 7, 2012, Mercado brutally beat his father, Alexandro Mercado, and his mother, Veronica Mercado, at the family home in the 8100 block of Radford Avenue in North Hollywood.

Mercado, who lived with his parents and two younger siblings, wrapped his mother's body in a sheet and placed her in a pickup truck that was found by police in Sun Valley. Soon after, authorities went to the home and found the father's body also wrapped in a sheet.

Deputy District Attorney Stacey Solomons prosecuted the case.

Case LA071957 was investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department.
